

'The Platform BKW' has an interest for in Wageningen living and / or working professional artists. The Platform is open to all disciplines. Most of the members are active in the visual arts and design in general. Besides that, the Platform represents disciplines in theater, music and literature .

'The Platform' is willing to support professional artists who live or work in Wageningen, and contributes to a good art climate in and around Wageningen. The Platform wants to play an active role in the Wageningen society and is a point of contact in the arts in the broad sense for community , organizations and businesses.